

Community Outreach Coordinator Report
11/2/2017

Program Type	Prevention	Screening
Cancer Site Selected	Lung Cancer	Prostate Cancer
Need Addressed / Reason for Program	Tobacco Cessation to reduce the incidence of lung cancer in the counties we serve	Provide a free screening to those at risk for prostate cancer
Date Need Identified and Documented in Minutes	2/2/2017 5/4/2017	2/2/2017 5/4/2017
Date of Activity	8/11/2017	4/29/2017
Activity &amp; Location	Fauquier County Public School Health & Benefits Fair at Kettle Run High School	PSA screening held in Chestnut Room at Fauquier Hospital
Tools Offered	Quit Now Virginia brochures were distributed in addition, a "Readiness to Quit Survey" was conducted	ACS information provided on risk factors for prostate and colon cancer
Number of Participants	200 individuals stopped and engaged in conversation and 26 surveys were completed	25
Summary of Activity	Education on importance of Tobacco Cessation in regards to personal health. A jar representing the amount of tar contained in one pack of cigarettes along with posters were utilized for visual emphasis.	PSA blood tests administered
Effectiveness	Of the 200 who stopped by and engaged in conversation, many stated they were "nonsmokers" & were ineligible for the survey. However, most acknowledged they had friends or family members who smoked. These individuals were given educational materials to pass along.	PSA: 22 were within normal limits; 3 were advised to follow up with physician for further evaluation.
Follow-Up Process		All participants received a letter in the mail with a copy of their results and a copy of the urologists' rack cards for those patients who required follow up.
National Guideline or Intervention Followed	ACS	ACS

Date Activity Assessed	9/7/2017	9/7/2017
--------------------------------------	----------	----------