Selection of a health care provider is a personal choice. The health care providers performing services in Fauquier Hospital are independent contractors who have privileges to practice at the Hospital but they are not Hospital employees, representatives or agents.

This includes but is not limited to:

- Radiologists
- Pathologists
- Emergency physicians
- Anesthesiologists
- Hospitalists
- Surgeons
- Others may apply

Independent contractors are responsible for their own actions and Fauquier Hospital is not liable for the acts or omissions of any such independent contractors.

If understanding the relationship between your Health Care Provider and this Hospital is important to you, you may ask your Health Care Provider.
